AROUND THE TOWN

R. B. Martin of Banff was a visitor in town on Tuesday.

Alex. Smith of Calgary is visiting with his brother Walter on the blind line.

Corny Hiebert, Jr., of Edmonton, was a visitor with his parents over Sunday and Monday.

J. A. Findlay and W. McIntyre were business visitors at Calgary over the week end.

Miss Green returned from Calgary, where she has been visiting for some time, on Monday.

Rev. J. Milton went to Lethbridge on Saturday and conducted services at the Baptist church in that city on Sunday.

Mr. Gavin Spence favored the congregation of Knox church with a solo at the Sunday evening service which was very much appreciated.

Mr. Reeth of B. C. has bought out the whole of J. L. Beane's interests in Didsbury, including a half section of land west of town.

Messrs. E. Morrison, H. Wiegand and J. Gateman came up from Calgary, where they are at present located, on Saturday to spend Sunday with their families.

Mr. Eddie Ratkie, who has been managing Mrs. Riner's farm for about two years, is going to leave for his own farm west of Red Deer.

Broken arms and wrists seem to be the style amongst the lads last week. Melancthon Shantz's eldest son was riding on a wagon near his home last week and by some means slipped and fell, breaking the right arm.

Next Friday and Monday being Good Friday and Easter Monday the banks will be closed on both days. Friday is a public holiday and all business places will be closed on that day. Both days are legal holidays.

Work is being rushed at the new quarters of the postoffice, one door north of the Union Bank. It is expected that everything will be in shape to open up by the first of April. We hope that the new postmaster will not make April fools of us all.

Didsbury lodge of the I. O. O. F. have secured new rooms over Reitzel & Kalbfleisch's store. The rooms are being renovated and new furniture put in, and when completed will be in line with the other institutions of its kind in Didsbury.

Do you know that your sidewalks must be cleared of snow according to by-law. The town daddies do not wish to put this by-law into force but it's up to the public to help them keep from it by cleaning the snow off the sidewalks.

Independent testimony of worth is always greatly appreciated. Mr. R. Moffat who is with Gavin Spence and who has had several years' experience amongst bands and orchestras, told the writer that Didsbury ought to be extremely proud of its orchestra. It is one of the best he has ever heard in small towns.

WE are getting more every day.
More what?

More satisfied coal customers, of course.

We have a few loads of good, dry Poplar stove wood, also some good 14 and 18 ft. poles on hand.

Atlas Lumber Co., Limited

I READ the guarantee, then tried the Buckley---Now I'd wear it, even if it were NOT Guaranteed.

The great advantage of wearing a hat guaranteed and insured against accident for three months, has appealed to thousands of men who might otherwise not have tried the BUCKLEY.

But the hat itself must have given absolute satisfaction if the first trial made the Buckley their permanent choice.

You can't wear a BUCKLEY hat for three months without realizing that its high quality justifies every word of the guarantee.

BUCKLEY HATS

are made of the best materials, by Union workmen, in a model English factory. The latest American styles are followed in a range of shapes that enables any man to select the hat best suited to his particular type of countenance.

A. M. TERRILL Ltd. FLORISTS CALGARY

A young son of Geo. McNair, who lives near Westcott, was playing fireman with some other boys at his father's barn last week when he fell out of a window, the result of which was that the little fellow broke the wrist of his right hand and cracked the bones of the left. Dr. Weart was called out and fixed up the injured members.

The Didsbury high and public schools will be closed down on Friday and all of next week, Friday and Monday being holidays, and the teaching staff will attend the big convention at Edmonton which will take up two or three days more.

Provincial Treasurer Passes Away

Hon. Malcolm McKenzie, provincial treasurer for Alberta, passed away in the Rogers hospital at Edmonton on March 15th of peritonitis, after a brief illness of less than a week.

He was conscious almost to the last and his wife and her sister, Miss Henry of Winnipeg, were at the bedside when the end came. The late Mr. McKenzie was in the house last Friday and attended a convention at Clareholm, where he was again renominated on Saturday.

He was elected to the Alberta legislature in 1905, and again in 1909.
Last year he was taken into the Sifton cabinet as provincial treasurer, and was one of the premier's closest confidants.

Of a keen legal mind with extensive knowledge of the law, Mr. McKenzie has left his impression on Alberta legislation as no other man in the province has. In committee work he was especially useful, and his opinion always carried great weight with other legislators. He was 50 years of age and was born in Kincardine, Bruce county, Ontario.

Premier Sifton was with Mr. Mc-Kenzie to the last.

The funeral services were held Monday in Macleod and were attended by a very large number of his friends and colleagues of the provincial legislature.

You judge a man not by what he promises to do, but by what he has done.
That is the only true test. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judged by this standard has no superior. People everywhere speak of it in the highest terms of praise. For sale by all dealers.

THE question of supplying our neighbors to the south of us with electricity for lighting purposes came up at the Council meeting on Monday night and was left in the hands of the Lighting Committee.
This committee will have to consider the whole situation and bring in a report which will either kill the project or make it worth while for both towns. The local plant has been paying its running expenses but there is considerable of a debt on construction, which exceeded the debenture issue, and if some way could be arranged to supply our sister towns with power without its becoming burdensome to either of us we should take advantage of the same. It means that the town would have to instal another engine and dynamo at least, the boiler capacity being large enough as it is. The whole question should be thoroughly looked into before any action is taken. It is possible, too, that we would have to have special legislation passed to allow us to supply this power to outside towns.

$8,600 a day for two weeks, or $103,200, is what it has cost the Dominion for the fun of the professional politicians at Ottawa who are opposing the Borden naval policy. No matter how much hot air these men may wish to spout the fact remains that they are fighting to get back into power if possible and you and I have to pay for it. After the disagreeable scenes in the Ottawa house at the end of last week when our own member for the Red Deer constituency so far forgot himself in the heat of debate it is time a limit was put to the controversy.

HERE'S our opinion of the naval question. Canada has done nothing towards supporting the protection for her commerce on the seas since she has at all been able to legislate for herself. The tax payer of England has had to do it all. She can, by the Borden policy, which is only an emergency anyway, make that start now, and no doubt ways and means will be found to start building up the industry of battle ship building in the near future which, according to experts will take millions of money and a good many years, if the people really wish it. The policy put in force two or three years ago has proved to be a fizzle and it is now time to face the issue squarely and do something so that the good name of Canada will not be branded as vacillating and cowardly.

Model Prison Farm Redistribution Bill

Edmonton, Alta., March 17.--Short term prisoners will hereafter work out their lines on a model farm, to be established by the municipality at a cost of $13,000 on a plot of ground near Big Island, on the Saskatchewan river, 12 miles southwest of here. This will be the first prison farm in western Canada.
Frederick W. Lyons, now in the employ of the provincial government of Ontario at Guelph, will be superintendent of the institution. Eight thousand dollars of the cost will be borne by current revenue, the balance being raised by the sale of debentures, running 10 years.

Mr. Lyons will have two assistants on the farm, 50 acres of which has been under cultivation. The prisoners will assist in erecting the necessary buildings, in addition to repairing those already on the ground, and will clear the land of fallen trees. The wooded portion of the farm will be cleared and cultivated, the hillsides being reforested. The land will be used for dairying, truck farming, poultry growing and gardening, the output being sold in local markets at prevailing prices.

There are several large deposits of gravel and sand along the bank of the river, the products of which are to be used for building purposes. Investigations also will be made to determine the existence of clay for manufacturing purposes.

R. B. Chadwick, head of the department of neglected children for Alberta, who has had a varied experience with delinquents of all classes, says Mr.
Lyons will give a good account of his work, predicting also that the model prison farm will be a success, at the same time saving thousands of dollars, to the people of Edmonton.

The Redistribution Bill dividing the province into constituencies was tabled at Tuesday's session of the provincial legislature.

The bill creates fifteen new seats, eight in the south and seven in the north.

Calgary will have three members
under the new bill and Didsbury, Olds, Innisfail and Red Deer constituencies will be changed but very little from their present boundaries.

All signs point to an early election and both parties are busy putting up candidates for the struggle.

Causes Much Disease

Advice about Stomach Troubles and how to relieve them.

Don't neglect indigestion, for it may lead to all sorts of ills and complications. An eminent physician once said that ninety-five per cent of all ills have their origin in a dis-ordered stomach.

Our experience with Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets leads us to believe them to be one of the most dependable remedies known for indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. Their ingredients are soothing to the inflamed membranes of the stomach. Rich in Pepsin and Bismuth, two of the greatest digestive aids known to medicine, the relief they afford is very prompt. Used persistently and regularly for a short time, they tend to relieve pains caused by stomach disorders.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets help insure healthy appetite, aid digestion, and promote nutrition. As evidence of our faith in them, we ask you to try them at our risk. If they do not give entire satisfaction, we will return the money you paid us without question or formality. Three doses, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00.

You can buy Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets

Lady Anne, she then blurted out suddenly, where is Harry?

On his way to New York, Lady Anne replied calmly. The ship sailed yesterday. I am writing to him at this moment.

She showed Lillas the envelope as she spoke.

Are you certain? the girl asked earnestly.

Quite certain. It was all arranged between us on Thursday. He arrived here a little after four, and I made him return to town about an hour later, travelling with him as far as Bloxham to talk over things.

What made him go back so suddenly?

I asked him to do so, Lady Anne replied with a blush. I was most anxious that he should leave Crayborne at once.

I can understand that. But are you sure he went? Have you heard from him since Thursday?

No, but—

He would never have let Friday go without writing if he were leaving England Saturday! Did he not come down to say good-bye?

No, I don't think so. Indeed, I may say I am sure he did. I should have been told.

Have you asked?

Lady Anne shook her head.

I have had so much to think about, she explained, half apologetically.

The woman who loved Harry looked wistfully at the woman who only liked him.

Would you very much mind making inquiries now? she asked.

If you like, Lady Anne said with a slight air of annoyance. He certainly did not come to the house while I was away, or Maria would have told me. I will go down to the lodge presently and ask—

Oh, do let me go! Lillas said eagerly. I know you will laugh at me but for two nights I have had the strangest dreams about Harry, and even through the day I cannot get rid of the feeling that he is in great trouble and danger, and that if someone does not come to his rescue he will die.

Her voice quivered, and her soft dark eyes were filled with tears. She was clearly in a state of intense nervous excitement. Lady Anne looked at her with something of pitying wonder.

Mere fancy, dear Lillas, really, she said. But run over to the lodge, if you think it will do any good, by all means.

Susan Jessop met Miss Morgan with asseverations that she had seen nothing of Clavelworth on the day in question, but Granmer, suddenly looking up from a book of sermons, over which she dozed on Sunday in default of her knitting, volunteered her information that the young gentleman had, indeed called at the Abbey on Friday and that little Edwin had joined him in the garden and let him out soon afterwards.

What did you mean, Granmer, by keeping all that a secret? Miss Jessop inquired with indignation. If you want to know where Edwin is, miss, he was wandering in the grounds when last I saw him.

Flushed and excited, Lillas hurried back to the library to inform Lady Anne of the result of her inquiries.

We will go and find the child if you like, the latter said, rising from her chair.

I am surprised that they did not tell me of Harry's call. But of course he went back to town by the five-thirty.

If it were not Sunday we could telegraph to the hotel to ask at what time he returned, Lillas said.

I have no doubt he is as safe as you and I, Lady Anne observed as she passed out into the garden, holding a sunshade over her head, and thor-

Lillas said nothing. In the ruined chapel they came upon Edwin Jessop seated comfortably inside one of the Abbots' tombs, talking to himself. Lady Anne turned sharply away at sight of him, as though his mere appearance annoyed her.

Edwin, she said in a cold voice, did you see Clavelworth, your friend Harry, as you call him, the day before yesterday?

Yes, my lady, the child answered in frightened tones.

What happened? Tell the truth, Edwin!

We had a walk and then Harry went away.

The truth, Edwin! Lady Anne repeated sternly.

I'm telling it, the child said, and suddenly began to cry.

Lady Anne walked quickly away, while Lillas ran forward to comfort him.

Dear, dear little Edwin, the girl murmured as she clasped the child in her arms and gently dried his tears.

Did you really see Harry go out by the lodge gates on Friday?

Edwin left off crying and put his lips close to her ear.

The yearlies have gotten out! he whispered.

Yes, but where are they keeping him? she asked as though the news were the most natural thing in the world.

In the passage which goes to the farm.

Will you take me there?

I haven't! George has the key. Don't tell Lady Anne. I'm frightened of Lady Anne.

But how did Harry get there?

I took him. And then I ran away. Who told you to do that?

Stephen Jessop. But you mustn't tell, oh you mustn't! I'll cry the child, his eyes dilating with fear.

Promise me you won't tell Lady Anne or Stephen. Promise!

He wound his arms tightly round her neck and she readily gave the promise. An awful fear was creeping about the heart of Lillas. She had heard vague stories of the ancient means of communication between the Abbey and the farm, but had paid no particular attention to them.

She gathered now from Edwin's frightened half-confession that George Anning kept his garden tools close to the Abbey entrance to the passage, and that George was up there now. But the child dared not face the gardener with her, and began to contradict herself, asserting that he had made it all out of his head and that he had never seen Harry on the day in question.

With the memory of her dreams in her mind, Lillas could not hesitate. She parted from Edwin, professing to pay no attention to his words, and avoiding Lady Anne, whom she perceived in the rose garden, she hurriedly let herself out of the lodge gate and ran rather than walked to the Manor Farm.

Here all was very calm and still and Sunday-like. Half-choked by her agitation and by the speed at which she had come, Lillas pushed open the gate of the farm ran across the yard to the small gate of the grass plot before the house, and flying over that, entered like a gust of wind, the presence of Mrs. Anning, who was seated enjoying a solemn Sunday tea with her eldest girl in a tawdriy furnished little room which she called the Sunday parlor.

Lillas flung her arms round Mrs. Anning's neck regardless of the fact that the farmer's wife was wearing her best gown of violet silk.

Run away, Lizzie! she cried to the nine-year-old maiden, who gazed at her with surprised eyes. I want to speak to your mother alone.

As soon as the door had closed on the child, Lillas was down on her knees at Mrs. Anning's side.

Fanny, my dear, kind Fanny, you must help me! Harry Clavel is imprisoned in the underground passage between the farm and Lollers Abbey, and we must get him out!

EVERY ABLE MAN A SOLDIER

German Chancellor Would Have His Country an Armed Camp in Peace.

Berlin, Germany.—At a banquet of the German Agricultural Council held recently, the Imperial chancellor, Dr. von Bethman-Hollweg made a speech, in which he said:

The desire for peace which I believe animates all the great powers, and which I hope, will help us over the Balkan crisis, has its soundest basis in the universal and vital necessity for developing the strength of the nations in every progressive labor. We shall be compelled this year to strengthen our land armaments.

It is the will of the people, if I understand it right, that every able-bodied man shall be a soldier.

The empire, the state, our hearths and homes are too sacred for us not to be resolved upon the adoption of the extreme measures to secure and defend them against war and the danger of war.

In this the nation is united, and it will remain united when we discuss the bills in the reichstag at Easter.

Ten Times Best Man

London.—Harvey Stapleton, of Market Deeping, Lincolnshire, who has acted as best man at ten weddings, has been presented with a gold medal by his friends as a memento of these occasions.

Recognized as the leading specific for the destruction of worms, Mo-har Graves' Worm Exterminator has proved a boon to suffering children everywhere. It seldom fails.

Flowers by Air for France

Brussels.—A bunch of flowers was carried thirty-one miles in his aeroplane to his sweetheart at Louvain, Brabant, last week by Lieutenant De-mannet of the Belgian army, who flew there and back from Brasschaet, near Antwerp, where he is stationed. He made a flight over Louvain with his fiancée.

IN A SHADOW

Inveterate Tea Drinker Feared Paralysis.

Steady use of either tea or coffee of an produces alarming symptoms as the poison (caffeine) contained in these beverages acts with more potency in some persons than in others.

"I was never a coffee drinker," writes an ill woman, "but a tea drinker. I was very nervous, had frequent spells of sick headache and heart trouble, and was subject at times to severe attacks of bilious colic.

"No end of sleepless nights—would have spells at night when my right side would get numb and tingle like a thousand needles were pricking my flesh. At times I could hardly put my tongue out of my mouth and my right eye and ear were affected.

"The doctors told me I was liable to become paralyzed at any time, so I was in constant dread. I took no end of medicine—all to no good.

"The doctors told me to quit using tea, but I thought I could not live without it—that it was my only stay. I had been a tea drinker for twenty-five years; was under the doctor's care for fifteen.

"About six months ago, I finally quit tea and commenced to drink Postum. I have never had one spell of sick headache since and only one light attack of bilious colic. Have quit having those numb spells at night, sleep well and my heart is getting stronger all the time." Name given upon request.

Postum now comes in concentrated powder form, called Instant Postum. It is prepared by stirring a level teaspoonful in a cup of hot water, adding sugar to taste, and enough cream to bring the color to golden brown.

Instant Postum is convenient; there's no waste; and the flavor is always uniform. Sold by grocers everywhere.

A 5-cent trial tin mailed for grocer's name and 2-cent stamp for postage. Canadian Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Windsor, Ont.

Mill Boy to Town Clerk

London.—Smith Terry, who has been appointed town clerk of Keighley, at a salary of $2000 a year, rising to $2500, is a native of the town, and had to go to work in a mill as a half-timer when 11 years of age.

London.—Complaints have been made of the disreputable appearance of the gravediggers present at funerals at Fulham Cemetery and they are to be provided with a suitable uniform.

Munich.—Two young waitresses employed at a Munich cafe fought a duel with revolvers to settle the question of the ownership of a $2 tin left by a wealthy guest. One was killed.

CITY'S KEYS IN PAWN

Golden Emblem of Authority Stolen From Mayor's Office.

Naples.—The mayor of Naples is endeavoring to recover the great golden keys of the city which are a present lying in a pawnbroker's shop.

Some time ago a baker named Circolo obtained a verdict of $1250 damages. The court of appeals decided against the municipality. In default of prompt payment, the man's bailiffs dropped into the mayor's office one morning during his worship's absence and seized the ancient gold key and some fine oil paintings and marble busts of Italian sovereigns. He put the lot in pawn.

The mayor is now suing the bailiff.

15 Victims of Mad Dog

Berlin.—Considerable excitement has been caused in Berlin by a mad dog which bit between fifteen and twenty people and two horses in the streets before it was killed by a policeman's saber. The police are searching for the victims, only eight or nine of whom have so far reported themselves for Pasteur treatment.

Minard's Liniment for sale everywhere.

LONG MARCH KILLS BOY

Military Enthusiasm of Lads Ends in Tragedy.

Paris.—Four boys, whose ages run from 12 to 13, left Sedan one morning last week to follow a regiment of infantry on the march.

Their enthusiasm for the army and the regimental band fired their youthful patriotism and kept them marching all day, until one of their number, Andre Lennion, a boy of 12, fell out from the ranks and, collapsing by the roadside, told his companions that he could go no further.

The boys were penniless, and their pride prevented them from begging. They went into a wood and dragged themselves, footsore and weary, to a hut among the trees.

There they spent the night, and Lennion's companions did what they could for him. It was not until next morning, when they could get no reply from him, that they went for help. Then it was found that the boy was dead.

The Pill That Leads Them All

Pills are the most portable and compact of all medicines and when easy to take are the most acceptable of preparations. But they must first test their power to be popular. As Parine's Vegetable Pills are the most popular of all pills they must fully meet all requirements. Accurately compounded and composed of ingredients proven to be effective in regulating the digestive organs, there is no surer medicine to be had anywhere.

Wounded Girl's Appetite.

Paris.—A 19-year-old Alsatian girl, Adèle Baril, was run over by a train at Rosny-sous-Bois, on the way to Paris, and had a leg and two arms cut off. When the doctor arrived, says the Matin, he was amazed by her first words: I am very hungry. Have you got some bread and a sausage.

That Wonderful Event

IF THERE is a time above all times when a woman should be in perfect physical condition it is the time previous to the coming of her babe.

During this period many women suffer from headache, sleeplessness, pains of various description, poor appetite, a host of other ailments which should be eliminated in justice to the new life about to be ushered into the world.

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

is a scientific medicine carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to the needs and requirements of woman's delicate system. It has been recommended for over forty years as a remedy for those peculiar ailments which make their appearance during the "expectant" period. Effectiveness is made easier by its use. Thousands of women have been benefited by this great medicine.

Your druggist can supply you in liquid or tablet form, or you can send 50 cent stamps for a trial box of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription Tablets, to Dr. Pierce, at Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo.

TRIBUTE TO CANADA

AMBASSADOR BRYCE EULOGIZES THE DOMINION

Says That the People of Great Britain Desire that the Bonds of Affection Between the Dominions and the Mother Country should be Closer and More Cordial.

Montreal.—The people of Great Britain and Ireland are keenly alive to whatever goes on in Canada and at home we desire that the bonds of affection between the Dominion and the Mother country should be ever closer and more cordial, said Right Honourable James Bryce, British ambassador at Washington, in his address at the Canadian Club luncheon recently.

Mr. Bryce referred to the splendid prosperity of the Dominion, to the singular success of the federal system of government since its inception, and to the fact that North America had enjoyed peace for nearly one hundred years. He also uttered a word of warning to Canada with regard to the problems that were facing her in connection with her national expansion.

I have long felt, said Mr. Bryce, that the Canadian clubs are unique and excellent institutions. Unique because in no other country, so far as I am aware, are there similar organizations drawing unto themselves as these do, all that is best, expressing public spirit and realizing that there is a great deal in life besides business and politics. In them only two things are thought of, the acquisition of knowledge and Canada as a whole.

They are of special interest to me who know nothing about business and have forgotten all I ever knew about politics. It is forty-three years since I visited Montreal for the first time. It is a very different place to what it was in 1870. Then it was not full of vitality and movement as it is today; business and population was comparatively slow and you had only just federation. There was no railway as far as Winnipeg, in fact I am not sure that Winnipeg existed at all. It is not many years since you realized the possibilities of the district northwest of Winnipeg.

When I first visited Winnipeg there was no idea of the existence of the fertile clay belt between there and Hudson Bay, and no notion of the vast mineral wealth of northern Ontario or of the coal deposits of the Rocky Mountains. After this no one can set limits to the great possibilities of the country.

Not less remarkable than your material progress has been the growth of your constitutional government, although in its early days there was not wanting people to show that Canada could never be a great nation. Your federal system has worked, on the whole, with wonderful success and little friction. It has worked perhaps better than anywhere else in the world; I think the only example of equal success is that of Switzerland.

You have had the great problem of two races, of peoples different in race and language whom the federal system has designed to unite. While the federation of districts so dissimilar as the province of British Columbia, the Pacific coast provinces and the Maritime provinces show that, as far as adaptation to local conditions is concerned, the federal system has been an unqualified success. And this success has been a tribute to the men who have been governed as well as those who framed the system.

Ballooning Across Atlantic

Berlin.—Joseph Brucker, the German-American aeronaut, who plans to cross the Atlantic in the balloon Suchard II, is in Berlin saying farewell to friends prior to starting for the Canary Islands, where he expects to begin his voyage between April 12 and 14.

Mr. Brucker, with the balloon will leave Trieste for Laspalmas by steamship on March 27. The Suchard II is the largest balloon in existence. Its diameter is 80 feet and its gas capacity 700,000 cubic feet. Mr. Brucker will be accompanied by two assistants. They are taking three weeks' provisions, but if they have the luck they expect they will land either in the West Indies or on the northern coast of South America in five or ten days.

Arrival of Immigrants

Ottawa.—During the eleven months April 1, 1912 to March 1, 1913, of the current fiscal year, 357,331 immigrants arrived in Canada. This total is made up of 133,711 British, 124,398 from the United States and 99,222 from all other countries combined.

The corresponding eleven months of the preceding year gave a total of 311,416 immigrants, and of these 124,483 were British, 111,458 from the United States and 60,995 from all other countries combined. Percentages of increase are:

British 7 per cent.; American 6 per cent.; other countries 4 per cent.; total 17 per cent.

Will Help Sheep Raisers

Lethbridge.—An Ottawa despatch indicates that the government is prepared to help the wool industry in southern Alberta. They propose to place two men to sort and pack for the English market and pay twenty-five per cent of the cost of the shipment to the old country. They can put southern Alberta on the market in this year in competition with the Australian and South African product.

CHURCHILL PARTY RETURNED

Spent Sixty-Five Days in North During Very Bitter Weather

Le Pas, Man.—The Churchill party composed of Inspector French and Sergeant Munday, of the R.N.W.M.P., who left here on January 6, have returned, having taken sixty-five days to make the round trip on their way out by way of Norway House and Split Lake. They travelled eight hundred miles in twenty-six days. They reached Fort Churchill February 6 in a head storm and twenty-two below zero weather, having taken only one day to cross the barren lands. The next day the thermometer fell to 37, and the velocity of the wind rose to 55 miles an hour. They report Fort Churchill a bleak point with nothing to protect it from the wind blowing from the bay. The nearest wool for fuel purposes is 12 miles distant.

Both travellers look none the worse for their long trip. They had to replace one of their dogs which died at Fort Churchill. Captain Douglas, of Prince Albert headquarters, welcomed the two officers on their arrival at the barracks.

Edmonton Prison Farm

Edmonton.—The first prison farm in western Canada is to be established by the city of Edmonton at a point some ten or twelve miles up the Saskatchewan River, near Big Island. This was decided by the council at its regular meeting, when that body adopted a recommendation of the city commissioner suggesting that Frederick W. Lyons, who opened the prison farm at Guelph, Ont., and now in the employ of the Ontario government in this capacity, be employed as superintendent of the city's farm.

The services of Mr. Lyons have been secured by the city very largely through the efforts of R. B. Chadwick, head of the department of neglected children.

Mr. Lyons has an excellent experience, says the city commissioners, and is a trusted and well recommended employee of his department. He can be depended to take over the whole management of the prison farm from its very inception. That is to say, he could take charge of the prisoners and through them conduct the buildings that would be necessary. He could oversee both buildings and farming operations.

DUKE'S DEPARTURE

His Royal Highness Will Sail From Halifax on March 22

Ottawa.—Definite announcement is made from Rideau Hall that their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and the Princess Patricia will sail for England on the C.P.R. steamer Empress of Britain, leaving Halifax on March 22.

Their Royal Highnesses would be accompanied by Miss Pelly, Miss Adam, Major E. S. Worthington, Capt. Buckley, Capt. Buller and Capt. Boscawen. It is possible that their Royal Highnesses may spend a few days in Montreal on their way to Halifax but nothing yet has been definitely decided as to their visit.

APPROVE ARMY INCREASE

German States Obey Will of Kaiser Wilhelm

Berlin.—The finance ministers of the federated states met in conference here and unanimously agreed to the army increase. The Government's proposal to cover the initial expenditure by a non-recurrent general property tax met with general approval.

The conference further adopted a plan for taxing the wealth of the country for the purpose of meeting the greater part of the permanent increase in expenditure. Several supplementary revenue measures were also agreed to.

NO HEREDITARY PEERS

Under No Circumstances Will its Absolute Veto Upon Measures be Restored

London.—During the course of the debate in the House of Commons, the Postmaster General, the Right Honourable L. M. Samuel, intimated that it was the intention of the Government during the life-time of the present parliament to introduce a bill for reform of the House of Lords.

He said that the new second chamber would contain no vestige of the hereditary principle and that under no circumstances would its absolute veto be restored.

Peary Going for Medal

Portland, Maine.—Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary will sail next Saturday from New York for Rome where he will be presented with a gold medal by the Royal Italian Geographical Society of Rome, in honor of the discovery of the North Pole. Herbert L. Bridgeman, secretary of the Peary Arctic club, who with Mrs. Peary, Miss Marie Peary and Robert E. Peary, Jr., will accompany the admiral.

Investigating Gold Find

Skagway, Alaska.—Dr. Young, provincial secretary of British Columbia, has arrived with dogs and supplies to make an investigation of the reported strike of placer gold at Teslin Lake. All the steamships arriving here are crowded with prospectors.

Nothing definite concerning the value of the new diggings is known. The report of the discovery was spread by an Indian, Skookum Jim, who has staked claims. The new diggings are 180 miles east of Atlin.

FOR IMPERIAL DEFENCE

HOW CANADA CAN BE OF GREAT-EST HELP

Sir Geo. Reid Believes That in the Near Future Canada Will Have to Undertake the Defense of the North Pacific and the North Atlantic.

London.—In the course of a speech before the Royal Colonial Institute, Sir George Reid, High Commissioner for Australia made interesting references to the question of Imperial defence, expressing the opinion that the time was not far distant when Canada would have to undertake the defence of the North Pacific and the North Atlantic. Australia and New Zealand, he stated, would be safeguarding the South Pacific while India must eventually take a substantial share in the naval defence of the East. Such a scheme, he pointed out, would leave England free to concentrate in the North Sea, and a large proportion of the trade routes.

Sir George thought the Australian policy having its own navy and operating in conjunction with the British fleet, was the example which must eventually be followed by all the self-governing Dominions. Meanwhile he could suggest nothing better than the present system of Imperial conferences and consultations with the Imperial defence committee open to the Dominions, and with freedom to the Dominions to share the burden of defence, either by having their own navies or by contributing to the British navy, a system which was consistent with the freedom of action and the co-operation of all the self-governing parts of the Empire.

Speaking on the suggestion of the establishment of an Imperial Parliament, with especial reference to India, Sir George declared that while the idea was undoubtedly a noble one it had many anxieties about it.

Would this Parliament of the empire, he asked, for instance, recognize the color line and leave out representation of 36,000,000 of the King's subjects.

In regard to these Imperial subjects the commissioner said some people were getting a little sick of perorations which let them have any ideas for consideration, but in regard to the safety of the Empire he emphasized the belief that there would be better development of naval and military strength by proceeding on the present basis than by merging independent energies into one common Parliament.

Sir Joseph Ward said he agreed with Sir George that it was improbable that any self-governing dominion would consent to return to the old system of government under a central authority.

Earl Brassey gave the assurance that as far as the Empire's naval defences were concerned there was nothing to be afraid of at the present moment. Indeed he felt justified in repeating Lord Fisher's assurances that they might sleep peacefully at home in their beds.

Rebukes War Mongers

Berlin.—The German Government publishes a sharp rebuke to certain newspapers which were declared to have been fomenting international trouble by provocative articles. It also disavows an attack made by the Cologne Gazette on France as the European mischief-maker, to which a section of the foreign press attributed an official character. The Government declared that the situation has improved and there is no doubt that the efforts of the powers toward peace will be successful.

Opposed to War Panic

Paris.—Some opposition to the immense and hurried increase of the peace footing of the French army has made its appearance. 350 professors of the Sorbonne, many of them among the finest scholars in France, have issued a united address to the people of France not to allow themselves to yield thoughtlessly to the military panic and the force of reaction which tend toward desperate adventures hostile to the republican government.

Investigate Cut Worm Evil

Lethbridge, Alta.—The Dominion government has advised W. H. Fairfield, superintendent of the experimental farm here, that an expert entomologist, Mr. Strickland, would leave Ottawa shortly to thoroughly investigate the cut-worm evil in southern Alberta. Tracts of worm-infested land on different farms are being secured for experiments and at the government farm here.

Vice Admiral Retires

London.—Speaking at the banquet of the chamber of commerce, Vice Admiral Sir Percy Scott said:

At the end of this week I will be out of the navy. There is no reason for me to remain when I only block the path to promotion of those my junior.

The admiral declared that the British navy was never more efficient than at the present time.

Elevator Contract Awarded

Fort William, Ont.—The Canadian Stewart Company has been awarded the contract for the building of the new 3,000,000 bushel addition to the C.P.R. Elevator D. This will make the total capacity of this elevator 7,000,000 bushels. The price of the contract has not been received here yet. The annex must be completed by the fall.

CANADA MAY GET FACTORIES

German and British Capitalists Will Enquire into Dominion Conditions and Prepare Reports

London.—Two deputations, whose investigations may have an important bearing on Canada's commercial future will visit the Dominion this summer. In July about a hundred German manufacturers and merchants, led by Herr Webua, will make an extended tour examining water power and local circumstances governing the establishment of manufactories. The party, which will start from Leipzig, will travel right through the eastern provinces and possibly will go west as well.

A second party of visitors will consist of a deputation of the Machinery Users' association of Great Britain, the president of which is Sir Francis Cawley and the vice-presidents, Lord Rotherham and Sir William Houldsworth—the names of whom are associated with British manufactures the world over. The association has decided to send to Canada a small committee of enquiry, which will probably consist of three or four, including Humphreys Davies, the association's consulting surveyor, to prepare an impartial report setting the prospects of trade in the various districts, and especially regarding the establishment of various kinds of factories. Enquiries also will be made concerning openings for capital investment. On their return a general report will be prepared and also special reports for private firms.

Suffragettes Sent to Jail

London.—The five suffragettes who attempted to reach the king with petitions while he was on his way to parliament were sent to prison for periods ranging from 21 days to a month. The five young women gave their names as Lillian Wilcox, Dorothy Smil, Kathleen Paget, Gertrude Vaughan and Grace Stuart.

The Bow street magistrate before whom they were arraigned gave them an opportunity of escaping prison sentences by filing sureties for their future good behaviour. The young women indignantly rejected this alternative.

They were formally charged with obstructing the police. The evidence showed that the police had received specific orders to prevent anyone from throwing a letter or a petition to the king while he was on the way to parliament.

The accused argued that their action was perfectly legal and was based on the right of every British subject to present a petition to the king. The magistrate explained that the right to present a petition to His Majesty must be exercised through a minister.

Two other suffragettes were sent to prison for a month for breaking windows at the home office. The women stated that they had adopted this method of protesting against the illegal arrest of the would-be petitioners.

SPLENDID FOR CANADA

Sir A. F. Firth Believes Canada's Future is Very Great

London.—Sir Algernon Freeman Firth, president of the Association of Chambers of Commerce of the United Kingdom speaking at the annual meeting of the association, said: The universal increase in trade in 1912 was undoubtedly owing to the development of new countries which has been going on at such a magnificent pace recently. Never had there been such a demand as during the past year for capital for developing the newer countries.

It has been a splendid year for Canada. Large sums of money have gone there and were well invested. It was a fashion to say things were going too fast in Canada, continued Sir Algernon, but I do not believe it. I have recently returned from that Dominion and the stories heard of its progress are wonderful.

A French Explanation

Paris.—The Paris newspaper L'Intransigent publishes an article intended to explain the increased military activity of France recently.

Through an indiscretion of an eminent Italian politician the paper says, the French government learned on January 13, that Germany had asked Italy if she could be ready to join with Germany and Austria in a campaign to begin in October, 1913, to put an end by decisive action to the general uneasiness in Europe.

The French government made inquiries which resulted in full confirmation of this information and then decided to proceed with urgent military measures.

Expect Good Seal Season

St. Johns, Nfld.—The Newfoundland seal hunt began recently when the first division of the sealing fleet set out from this port. The early presence of drift ice in the Gulf of St. Lawrence and off the Grand Banks, and the fact that seals were sighted several weeks ago have been taken as indications of a good season.

No More Fire Horses

New York.—The day of the fire horse in New York City is over. We will purchase no more horses for the fire department, Commissioner Johnson announced. We have now about 1,500 horses in the department, apparatus with motors as fast as possible.

London.—A resident of Towcester, Northants, has worn the same suit of black clothes at 287 funerals and a wedding.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON XII.—FIRST QUARTER, FOR MARCH 23, 1913

Text of the Lesson, Gen. xxiv, 58-67.

Memory Verses, 64, 65—Golden Text Prov. iii, 6—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

We have our choice this week of a resurrection lesson from Mark xvi or the regular lesson, but as we saw Isaac risen from the dead in our last lesson and this one shows us a bride for Isaac and his marriage, suggesting the resurrection of the bride of Christ, the church, and the marriage of the Lamb, we will take the regular lesson.

After the figurative death and resurrection of Isaac (quite a reality to both Abraham and Isaac) Abraham returned to Bersheba and dwelt there. It is our privilege to dwell always in the well of him that liveth and seeth us and by the well of God's faithfulness and with joy draw water from the wells of salvation (Gen. xvi, 13, 14, margin; xxi, 31, margin; Isa. xli, 3).

Gen. xxiii tells of the death and burial of Sarah at the age of 127 years and of the purchase of the cave of Machpelah at Hebron as a burial place. Gen. xxiv is the record of Abraham's servant obtaining a wife for Isaac and is wonderfully suggestive of the present work of the Holy Spirit obtaining a bride for the crucified and risen Christ. We know from Eph. v, 31, 32, that Adam and Eve are typical of Christ and the church, and there is much to be learned from all the brides of Scripture, notably Rebekah, Rachel, Asenah and others. The Bride, the Lamb's wife, is described in Rev. xxi, and in Jer. lvi, 14. Jehovah says that He is married to Israel.

We have seen Abraham promised a seed as the dust of the earth or the sand of the sea and again as the stars of heaven, and we have seen the two combined (Gen. xli, 16; xv, 5; xxii, 17). Later we shall see the star promise given to Isaac and the dust promise to Jacob (xxvi, 4; xxiii, 14), and some day when we see the elect church and the elect Israel completely gathered, the heavenly and the earthly seed of Abraham, the stars and the sand, we may wonder that we did not see it before.

In our lesson chapter we see a wealthy father and his only son, who had been given back to him from the dead in a figure and to whom he had given all that he had (verses 35, 36). We see also a servant who had control of all his master's goods going forth to obtain a wife for this son and carrying with him samples of his master's wealth (verses 10, 22, 53). The story of the servant's prayer, his childlike trust in God, the direct answer to his prayer and his refusal to eat till he had told his errand are all most fascinating and instructive and a grand commentary on the Golden Text.

As we read of the only son to whom the father gave all that he had we cannot but recall these words: All things are delivered unto Me of My Father. The Father loveth the Son and hath given all things into His hand (Mat. xi, 27; John iii, 35). Then as to the Holy Spirit, whose special work in this age is to obtain a bride for Christ and who is suggested by Abraham's servant and his commission, we cannot but think of these words concerning Him: He shall testify of me. He shall receive of mine and shall shew it unto you (John xv, 26; xvi, 14). The Holy Spirit tells in His word of the wealth and the love of the Son of God, and the only question for the sinner is: Will thou go with this man? (Verse 58).

When the reply is, as Rebekah's was, I will go, then the matter of our redemption is settled, and we start on our way to meet our Isaac, having received from the Spirit evidences of His love and His riches of grace, such as are set forth in Eph. i, 3, 6, 7, 13, 14; Rom. iii, 24; v, 1; viii, 1; 1 John iii, 1, 2, etc. We must start at once as the servant did with Rebekah, and not tarry in the old surroundings, for we are now His purchased property and we are to serve the living and true God and to wait for His Son from Heaven, whom He raised from the dead, even Jesus, who delivered us from the wrath to come (1 Thess. i, 9, 10). There is no record of the journey beyond the fact that Rebekah and her damsels rode upon the camels and followed the man as he took them and went his way.

It must have been a long journey, commonplace and weary, and they knew not the way, but the man knew the way, and they had only to follow him. The only true life of the believer is to yield to the Holy Spirit's control and guidance and let Him have His own way with us in everything. We cannot but believe that the servant would have much to tell of Isaac and his wealth and that he had little if aught else to talk about, and we can scarcely think that he would grow weary of hearing about him to whom he had already given himself and with whom he expected to spend his life as his wife, the sharer of his joys and sorrows.

Rebekah's covering herself as she met her beloved makes us think of the seraphim of Isa. vi, who in the presence of the glory cover themselves with their wings and of Paul, some of whose favorite words were: Not I, but Christ; Not I, but the grace of God. (Gal. ii, 20; 1 Cor. xv, 10). In verse 67 we read that Isaac was comforted and 1 Thess. iv, 18-18, tells us to comfort one another, with the thought of meeting our Beloved in the air when He shall welcome His bride.

Westcott News

The ladies of the Garfield district appeared at the band practice Monday night, besides bringing all kinds of good things to eat and drink. The good cheer they introduced into the gathering was quite an encouragement to the boys to do their best. The boys will meet at the Westcott school next Monday night.

Jack Carruthers made a business trip to Calgary last week.

The Westcott threshing syndicate brought home their outfit last Friday. They intend to do some grinding till spring.

We would advise the Conservative candidate to do something with Dan Habermehl. He is getting to be an awful Liberal booster lately.

Little Kenneth McNair had the misfortune to break one arm and badly injure the other one by falling from the loft the other day.

Many sufferers from rheumatism have been surprised and delighted with the prompt relief offered by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Not one case of rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment whatever. This liniment is for sale by all dealers.

Co-operative Elevator Act

Edmonton, March 17.—Farmers all over the province will have opportunities to extend their operations as soon as the Alberta Co-operative Elevator Act, introduced at this session of the legislature here, comes into force. The bill, which is entirely satisfactory to the United Farmers of Alberta, provides that the government undertake to aid in the acquisition, erecting, extending and remodeling of elevators throughout the province, operated co-operatively by farmers, to the extent of 85 per cent. of the entire cost. The loans will bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent., repayable in 20 equal installments, the first being due on August 31 of the second year after granting the loan. The money loaned by the government is to be secured by first mortgage on the property. It is also provided that the legislature may grant money to cover the initial cost of establishing co-operative companies.

Microbes in Your Scalp

Authorities say that a microbe causes baldness. If you are losing hair try our remedy at our risk.

Professor Unna, of Germany, and Dr. Sabouraud, the great French Dermatologist, claim that a microbe causes baldness, and their theory has been verified by eminent scientists. This microbe destroys the hair follicles, in time causing the scalp pores to close and the scalp to become shiny. Then, it is believed nothing will revive the growth. If treated before this occurs, baldness may be overcome.

We know of nothing that has given such universal satisfaction in treating the scalp and hair as Resall "93" Hair Tonic. It has been designed after long study to overcome the cause of falling hair as discovered by Prof. Unna, Dr. Sabouraud and other scalp and hair specialists, and we believe it will do more than anything else can to remove dandruff and stop falling hair; and if any human agency can promote a new growth of hair it will do that, too.

We want you to make us prove it. We will pay for a month's treatment of Resall "93" Hair Tonic used during a trial, if you will use it according to directions, and are not thoroughly satisfied. When we will do this, you surely should not hesitate to at least try it.

Start the treatment today. Your mere request will get your money back if you want it. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00.

You can buy Resall "93" Hair Tonic in this community only at our store: H. W. CHAMBERLAIN.

Didsbury The Chamberlain Store. There is a Resall Store in nearly every town and city in the United States, Canada and Great Britain. There is a different Resall Store for nearly every country human life, especially designed for the particular ill for which it is recommended. The Resall Store is America's Greatest Drug Store.

Want Electric Light

Will Didsbury supply electric light to the neighboring towns was a question brought up at the Council meeting on Monday night. The matter was brought up through a communication from the Secretary of the Carstairs Council in regard to same.

Those present at the meeting were Mayor Atkins, Councillors Moyle, Cooper, Osmond, Sinclair, Sec. B. A. St. Clair and Solicitor Patterson.

The first business to come up was a communication from Carstairs re supplying them with electricity for lighting purposes.

The matter was discussed for a short time by the Council but it was decided that the communication be put in the hands of the Light Committee.

Osmond Cooper—That communication be left in the hands of the Light Committee and that Carstairs be notified that matter is being taken up. Carried.

The Light Committee who will go into this question are H. W. Chambers, chairman, J. Sinclair and H. E. Osmond.

Complaints had been made about the unsafe condition because of the danger of fire at the rear of the south end butcher shop, and the Fire and Water Committee with Fire Chief Wood had been asked to inspect the premises and bring in a report, which was as follows:

We the undersigned beg leave to report that we have examined the fire place in the south end butcher shop and find same not safe for use. Signed, James Sinclair, chairman; S. R. Wood, fire chief.

The report was received and the Solicitor instructed to take up the matter with the proprietors of the butcher shop.

Moyle-Cooper—That Fire and Water Committee with Fire Chief Wood make an inspection of the town to see if fire by-law is being complied with. Carried.

Coun. Osmond on behalf of the Didsbury Citizens Band applied for a grant of $75 to help clear off the band's indebtedness. Notice of motion having been brought in by Coun. Osmond-Chambers at last meeting.

The feeling of the Council was that they would have to cut out giving many grants this year on account of financing, but that under the circumstances where the town has got so much invested in instruments and the band stand and the social and advertising value of the band that this sum should be granted.

Osmond-Cooper—That band be granted the sum of $75 to clear off indebtedness. The band to give at least one open air concert (weather permitting) a week through the summer months in the band stand. Carried.

Bills and accounts were then taken up and those O.K'd ordered paid as follows: D. S. Shantz & Co., $7.95; H. Roeth, $10; W. G. Liesemer, $1.10.

The bugbear of every council came up, that of sanitation regulations for the town, and a lengthy discussion took place, the faces of the Councillors reflecting the seriousness of the question under discussion which no doubt is causing them to do something hard thinking on the matter. No action was taken but Coun. Osmond, chairman, was asked to bring in some amendments to the old sanitation by-law and it is hoped that the public will assist the Council in every way possible to clean up when the matter is suitable.

The by-law regarding pool rooms will be amended, and the sections regarding the conduct of these places and the penalty for breaking same, which are included in the Provincial Act and Town by-laws will be printed and hung up in the pool rooms for guidance of the proprietors and frequenters of same.

The Council then adjourned.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of coughs, colds and croup. It can be depended upon. Try it. Sold by all dealers.

Pure Seed

Calgary, March 17.—This is the season when farmers are securing their seed supply for the coming spring. The importance of using seed of high vitality and free from weed seeds cannot be too strongly emphasized. Very often in the past farmers, through ignorance of the quality of the seed they were using or for some other reason, have sown weed seeds.

During the past few years the dominion seed branch has been endeavoring to effect improvement in the seed trade by educational work with farmers and seed dealers, supplemented by the enforcement of the Seed Control Act. This act defines the commercial grades of seeds. All timothy, red clover, alsike and alfalfa seed offered for sale by either wholesaler or retail merchant must be graded and marked Extra No. 1, No. 1, No. 2 or No. 3, according to quality. Seed that will not grade No. 3 cannot legally be sold except for export or for cleaning. This latter clause applies to farmers as well as seed dealers. Farmers selling seed that is below grade No. 3 to their neighbors, for seeding or to dealers on the understanding that it is to be re-tailed for seeding without recleaning, are liable to prosecution, and every effort will be made to apply the act to farmers as strictly as to seed merchants.

Paper packets of vegetable and flower seed must be marked, showing the year in which they are filled, and farmers and others purchasing such seed should see that all packets are marked before purchasing.

Seed grain, clover and grass seed, as well as root and vegetable seeds, whether in sealed packets or in bulk, must be capable of germinating in the proportion of at least two-thirds of the legal standard for good seed of the kind. Seed that will not germinate in this proportion must be plainly marked showing the actual percentage of seeds capable of germinating. Farmers having, or purchasing seed, the vitality of which they have reason to suspect, should have a germination test made of a sample of it.

Seed grain, flax, white clover, grasses and all other forage plant seeds must be free from noxious weed seed, or be labelled showing the names of the noxious weed seeds present. The above are the outstanding features of the Seed Control Act of Canada, and, if persons purchasing seed insist on the observance of the above rules, they will not only obtain a seed of superior quality but will do much to ward off an infestation of their farms by noxious weeds. All persons so wishing it may have their seeds tested free of cost at the Seed Laboratory, Calgary, Alta.

CALLS MAGISTRATE A COW

Most Deadly Insult One Can Offer to Paris Policeman

Paris.—The most deadly insult one can offer a French policeman is to say to him: Death to the cows.

A few days ago in the Rennes appeal court M. de Savignon Larombiere, the judge explained to a policeman that a cow was a noble and beautiful animal, and therefore its name could not be considered a term of opprobrium. The next day a vagabond who came up on appeal before M. de Savignon Larombiere had his original term of imprisonment doubled. On hearing the sentence the prisoner called the judge an old cow.

Immediately the judge, forgetting his philosophic defense of a few days before, ordered the vagabond's term of imprisonment to be further increased by five years for insulting him.

FIGHT ON EDGE OF PRECIPICE

Officer Bites Through Artery in Wrist of Soldier and Latter Collapses

Geneva.—Recently a terrible struggle on a mountain pass, near a precipice of 3000 feet, has taken place on the south slopes of the Bernina range, between an Italian officer and a private.

An Italian custom house patrol, under the command of Lieutenant Rocca, was visiting the Alpine posts in the Valtellina on the Swiss frontier, when the officer had to reprimand a soldier named Celli. This man determined to have revenge.

When the patrol was away on other duty, Celli attacked his officer on a lonely Alpine pass and attempted to throw him over the precipice. A long struggle followed, the men being of about equal strength and unarmed.

The officer, to save his life, bit through an artery in the wrist of his subordinate, who collapsed, owing to the loss of blood. Soon afterward the patrol arrived and carried Celli to a hospital in the valley, where he recovered.

The military court, which has now tried the case at Milan, took into consideration the sufferings and former good conduct of the soldier, and above all the refusal of his officer-victim to prosecute, and sentenced Celli to six months' imprisonment.

CAN LAUGH AT LIFE'S MINOR ILLS

SINCE DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED HER KIDNEY DISEASE

New Brunswick Woman Tells How She Was Rescued from Ill Health By the Twin Remedies, Dodd's Kidney Pills and Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Negus, Allain P.O., N.B. (Special).—Mrs. Joseph G. Savoy, a well-known resident of this place, whose ill-health has been a matter of much concern to her friends, is telling of the cure she found for all her troubles in Dodd's Kidney Pills and Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

"My health is fine now," Mrs. Savoy says, in an interview. "The pains are gone from my side and back, and when I go to bed I can sleep. Before I started using Dodd's Kidney Pills and Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets I could not eat anything heavy such as meat, but now I can eat practically what I please with no ill effects."

Mrs. Savoy was in a generally run-down condition and her cure came about by using the natural remedies, Dodd's Kidney Pills cured and invigorated her kidneys, thus purifying her blood and improving the circulation.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets insured proper digestion of her food, thus furnishing the body with the nutrition it required. Women with healthy kidneys and sound digestion can afford to laugh at the minor ills of life.

Berlin.—Great radius of action, rather than speed is, according to a statement by Admiral Tirpitz in the reichstag to be the chief requirement of the German admiralty in their plans for the development of the naval air fleet.

SOCIALISTS SCORN KAISER

One Calls Him an Amateur Sailor, Unable to Command a Fleet

Berlin, Germany.—The Kaiser's activities as a sailor were bitterly attacked by the Socialists in the reichstag during the discussion of the naval estimates.

It was proposed by the government that $2,500,000 should be spent on rebuilding the royal yacht Hohenzollern, on the ground that the vessel, which was built in 1890, is now old and not luxurious, fast or safe enough for present purposes.

Herr Ledebour, the socialist, opposed the proposal, declaring that the naval estimates took into consideration only warships and not pleasure yachts for the Kaiser. If the Kaiser as commander-in-chief requires an official vessel, said Herr Ledebour, every battleship has special suites of rooms for that purpose. If the Kaiser wants a private ship let him pay for it himself.

Another Socialist member went further, declaring that the Kaiser was utterly unfit to command any naval maneuver, never having passed any examination or test. He was merely an amateur sailor.

Admiral von Tirpitz, the naval minister, protested warmly against the last speech. He declared that the Kaiser's knowledge of naval matters was complete, as he had often had reason to ascertain personally during the last twenty-five years.

The government's proposal was finally adopted in spite of the Socialist opposition.

Attacked by a Tame Lion

Rome.—The young lion which Princess Radziwill recently took to a factory fancy dress ball in a chariot was being taken out for exercise on a leash in the Zoological Gardens recently, when it got loose. The animal sprang on the infant son of Count Machi, a former Italian minister at Buenos Aires and inflicted a serious wound on the boy's forehead with its claws.

For Croupy Children Keep 'Nerviline' Handy

It Positively Brings Children Out of Danger and Relieves at Once

A Mother Tells Her Experience

"Bringing up young children has its responsibilities under the best of circumstances," writes Mrs. E. G. Fagan, of Holmes' Corners, "but croupy colds add considerably to the worry. My little family of four all went through the croupy era, but I always had Nerviline on hand and never felt nervous. I just followed the directions, and I can tell you that nothing I know of is surer to cure croupy colds than Nerviline."

"In our home we use Nerviline frequently. For cold in the chest, pleurisy, hoarseness, etc., it is simply wonderful. My husband uses it for neuralgia and sick headache. Nerviline has so many uses that no mother can afford to be without it."

The large family size bottle, which sells at 50c., is the most economical; trial size, 25c. Your storekeeper or druggist sells Nerviline, which is prepared by The Catarthozone Co., Buffalo, N.Y.

WRONG MAN RELEASED

Prisoner Escapes by Answering Name of Another Man

Paris.—A clever escape from prison has just been made by a man named Charvrenet, who was detained at the Santo Prison.

He was placed in a cell with other prisoners, including a man named Bruteau, who was about to be released. A policeman went to the cell and called the name Bruteau. A man stepped forward, was taken to the office, and after signing a paper in the name of Bruteau, was set at liberty.

Next morning the real Bruteau applied for his release, and the ruse was then discovered. Bruteau has now been charged with helping his cell companion to escape.

AERIAL TALE AMUSES GERMANY

Ridicule Evoked by Sensational Article in British Technical Journal

Berlin, Germany.—The statement published in the Engineer that the German navy had adopted and was secretly completing a number of deadly destroyers, furnished with an aerial gun capable of destroying dreadnoughts, causes considerable amusement here, especially in naval circles, where it is relegated to the category of phantom airship stories, tales of army corps disguised as German waiters in London.

Needless to observe, the story from beginning to end is inherently absurd. What is the British intelligence department about, what are our naval attaches and the naval attaches of other powers about if this extraordinary vessel has escaped their notice? Thousands of people in this country must know about the vessel if it was planned, and it presupposes a colossal piece of duplicity on the part of the German admiralty, which is unthinkable.

This fairy tale has often cropped up in former years. The press here pokes great fun at the idea. One journal says the "Engineer" forgot to mention that by pressing a button the vessel could be transformed into an aeroplane. Another points out that summer is the proper time for such stories—summer, when the sea serpent and the gigantic gooseberry flourish.

AROUND THE TOWN

J. W. Doran of Moosejaw is relieving Mr. J. C. Davidson, the manager of the Royal Bank, for a few weeks while he is away conducting negotiations for a partnership in domestic affairs. Mr. Davidson is expected back early in April.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. McNaughton will be glad to hear that their daughter Pearl, who is in the Calgary hospital, is progressing favorably, although the main operation on her throat has not been undertaken yet.

It is reported that the dance given by the ladies of Didsbury on Monday night in the Opera House was an immense success. There was hardly enough room to dance comfortably. The ladies evidently know how to make these gatherings a source of pleasure to those who attend and their invites are always eagerly looked for.

Didsbury has more snow at present than at any time through the winter. The continued snow fall of the last few days, especially after the fine weather at the end of February when all the old snow disappeared, has delayed spring farm work considerably. Reports state that the snow storm is general all over the province.

The proprietor of the Golden West hotel gave an order for a new beer tap to one of the local hardware stores last week which had to be secured through a wholesale house in Calgary. Consternation reigned and also a great deal of hilarity when it was discovered that the wholesale house had sent up a large bear trap. Wonder what connection there is between a beer tap and a bear trap.

A friend of ours, Mr. Geo. Gordon, editor of the Ponoka Herald, was nominated to carry the Conservative banner for the Ponoka constituency in the forthcoming provincial election last week. George is a clear-headed, forcible speaker, and if he is returned he will no doubt be heard from in the legislative chamber. He is a Scotchman, has travelled a good deal, and is well liked by those who know him thoroughly.

You can say good by to constipation with a clear conscience if you use Chamberlain's Tablets. Many have been permanently cured by their use. For sale by all dealers.
